

Foodservice Institute Certification
Integrity Form

This disclaimer statement is to be completed by students prior to taking any certification exam offered by the Foodservice Institute. This statement must be signed for each exam taken; you must fill out a new form for each exam. You may choose to use the paper form or online form.

Which certification are you testing for? _____

I, _____, sign this disclaimer agreeing to the following:
Print Full Name

- The approved proctor will be present while I take the exam.
- I will not post any questions on any social media platform, through email or speak of the test questions to anyone who I know plans to take the exam.
- When taking the exam, I will not look up the answers on my phone, laptop or any other way to access information.
- I will not ask the proctor to reword any of the questions or help me answer any of the questions. I understand the proctor is there as a witness to my honesty and not as support for the exam.

Proctor's Name: _____

- I understand that if the Foodservice Institute receives evidence that I was not honest while taking the exam, I will lose my certification and will not be allowed to receive any certification through the Foodservice Institute in the future.
